PARTICIPANT'S PLEDGE

I have read the competition guidelines and have met the requirements for competition. I promise to conduct myself in a manner becoming to a Christian and representative of my church, district, and state.

We on the Florida State Christian Ministries Board cannot begin to tell you what a blessing it is to have been selected by our Lord to serve both Him and you. To watch His work in progress is a wonderful thing. These contestants are the future of our churches, communities and nation. Watching them grow in the Word and preparing themselves for future service is really reassuring that the Christian ministries in the world will continue long after we have gone on to our rewards.

The Christian Ministries Board:
Charlie Elliott, Clark Ryman, Lindsay Clyatt, Allan Austin & Mike Taggart

The National Youth Conference (NYC) Guidelines for Bible Competition and Music and Arts Festival are the official guidelines for the Florida State Youth Conference (FSYC) Bible Competition and Music and Arts Festival. All registration requirements must meet the NYC guidelines. This includes, but is not limited to, the number of contestants competing in any given category and the number of contestants representing the State of Florida in any given category. The only modification from the NYC requirements and the FSYC requirements will be the registration fees.

Fees

Florida State Youth Conference (FSYC) will submit the required Competition Event Entry forms and fee for the competitors that have competed and are being sent to the National competition.

Each student and adult will be responsible for paying their own "VIII Conference Student and Adult fee".

(See page 10, "VIII Conference Student Fee, VIII Conference Adult Fee - Ministry Expo Guidelines Book 2018-19)
