

Speaker:

Dr. Neil Gilliland will be speaking for us during this year's retreat. Neil currently serves as the Director of Member Services for the FWB International Missions Department in Antioch, TN.

Neil also serves as an adjunct professor at Welch College and as an adjunct online professor for Liberty University. Additionally, he does counseling, primarily with missionary families and premarital couples, and maintains a fairly rigorous speaking schedule.

A native of southern Ohio, he was saved while attending Porter FWB Church. Neil is 1974 graduate of Ohio State University with a degree in psychology as well as an alumnus of Welch College where he studied Bible and missions. He holds an M.S. and Ph.D. in Counseling Psychology from Tennessee State University. He is married to Sheila (Raper). Together they served as house parents at the Trula Cronk Home for Children and then as dorm parents at a boarding school for missionary children under International Missions in Côte d'Ivoire, West Africa.

Special Excursion:

Our group will be going to the Medieval Times Dinner Theater on Tuesday evening of our retreat. This is a fun and exciting event that everyone will enjoy. We will enjoy dinner and the show during our visit.
